

WEDDED LIFE WAS BRIEF

Elva M. Vis Sues For Divorce In Common Pleas

Was Only Married In March Of This Year

Divorce Granted By Judge Fulton On Monday

Commissioners Award One Contract At Meeting

Other Items Of Interest From The Court House

Elva M. Vis has filed a suit for divorce in the common pleas court of Knox county against Nicholas A. Vis, after a very brief wedded life. The plaintiff states they were married March 24, 1914, and that no children were born to them. She states that shortly after her marriage her husband took her to Newark where they resided for two weeks. They then came back to Mt. Vernon and later resided in Pittsburgh, Pa., with the parents of the defendant. The plaintiff alleges that on October 25, 1914, the defendant left her and has since refused to live with her. She charges him with gross neglect. The plaintiff states that the defendant is now living in Pittsburgh with his parents. The plaintiff asks for a divorce and alimony and that she may be restored to her maiden name, Elva Clark. B. E. Sapp is the attorney for the plaintiff.
